Chapter	5
Activity name	You as an organisation leader
Version	1.0
Activity Objective	This is a self-assessment of your capability at being an organisation leader. The objective is just to provide awareness of the areas you can improve. It is a very brief set but it is enough to raise awareness of the role.

Activity Instructions

Note: This activity will be difficult to do at this stage of the book. You can still have a go but I recommend returning to this activity when you have completed the book.

1	Never	2	Rarely	3	Sometimes	4	Most of the time	5	Always

Questions	Rating
I have set a clear strategy with goals and objectives that are well communicated to everyone.
I set targets for myself and the team that stretch us but are not unachievable.
I look for opportunities to improve and innovate what we do and how we do it.
I understand our organisation is a system and do my best to make decisions with that mindset.
I actively seek ideas from my peers, our employees and customers on how we can innovate and do things better.
I am prepared to hold others accountable for unproductive behaviours and actions.
I clearly communicate the company direction and priorities regularly.
Total
Average

